The total shipments of coal from Pittsburg on the present rise was 3,197,000 bushels.

The postal money-order system is too complicated for the business offered, and Congress will be asked to simplify it.

MAUD S. has been shipped by Mr. Vanderbilt to Capt. George Stone, of Cincinnati. She will probably spend the winter at Chester Park.

The Irishmen of Wisconsin and Illinois have raised a fund of $2,500 to be expended in the defense of O'Donnell, who killed the informer, Carey.

The New Orleans National Bank which has been mixed up in the Louisiana Lottery troubles, has sued Postmaster General Gresham for $100,000 damages.

The Spaniards want the leaders of the rabble who insulted their King in Paris punished, and also ask the publication of the text of President Grevy's apology to Alfonso.

The amount of head tax on immigrants collected at the port of Philadelphia during September was $852.50. The total amount of this tax collected at all the ports in the United States since the passage of the immigration act of August 1882, is estimated at $225,000.

The Missouri Trades and Labor Federation has adopted a declaration of principles which include a demand that eight hours shall constitute a day's work; that Saturday afternoons shall be made holidays; equal pay for equal work for both sexes, and that the railway and telegraph lines shall become the property of the State.

It is believed that the Spanish Government will protest against further delay in the publication of the apology of President Grevy to King Alfonso, several days having elapsed since it was made and accepted conditionally that it should be officially published. It is also stated that the Government will demand that the apology shall be published as it was given by President Grevy, and not as represented in the French papers.

Personal Remarks.

Senator Chaffee says he is a temperance man because years ago, when he was poor, a bar-keeper charged him $20 for "drinks for the crowd."

The first Chinese child ever born in Washington was the daughter of the Chinese Minister, who appeared about a month ago. She is named Mei Ju; the first name Mei means America and is given in honor of this country.

The Rev. Dr. Parker Morgan, of New York, assistant rector of Heavenly Rest, has just refused an offer to go to Chicago and take charge of Trinity Church at a salary of $10,000 a year. Mr. Morgan has $6,000 a year in New York and loves that city. Many are called and few are chosen.

The London dramatic papers have it that "a suite of apartments is being prepared in the mansion of the Vanderbilts," for Henry Irving during his stay here. His sitting room, they say, will front on Fifth avenue, and he will have a study, a toilet room and bedroom. A large mirror is said to have been purchased for his use, that he may study and pose before it.

The Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch says of the Hon. Samuel S. Cox, who was in 1853-54 an editorial writer for the Columbus Statesman: "It was late in the afternoon, and the sun was just dipping below the horizon. Suddenly Cox rushed into the room. 'Boys,' he said, 'did you see that sunset? It's the most beautiful thing I ever saw.' And, seizing some paper from the proof press and leaning over the imposing stone, he wrote the famous pen picture that gave him the life-long sobriquet of 'Sunset' Cox. The article was taken by the compositors and put in type piece by piece, and it appeared in that evening's number of the paper."

John Jarrett, who has resigned the presidency of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, and will this week enter upon his duties as managing agent of the United States Tin Plate Association, landed in this country a poor immigrant from South Wales, on May 24th, 1862, sixteen years old. He went that autumn to Dunsmuir, Penn., and obtained work in an iron mill. On his first Sunday there he went out for a walk, and seeing an orchard laden with fine apples, swung himself up the nearest tree and began to help himself to the fruit. Pretty soon the farmer came along: "What 'er ye doin' up that tree, young fellow?" "I'm 'elpin' myself to some apples, sur," the young fellow simply responded. "Elpin' yourself to some apples, sur, are ye?" cried the farmer, in exaggerated mimicry of the young foreigner's dialect. "And who the blazes told you you might 'elp yourself to my apples?" "Why," stammered the apple-eater in innocent perplexity, "hain't this a free country?" "Mebbe it is, but them's my apples. You come down off 'a that tree." The young man came down, and the farmer, seeing he had only recently landed, gave him a kind but emphatic exposition of the rights of property in this free country.

LOCAL POSTAGE.

The Queer Discrepancy in the New Postal Rates.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 7.—Under the law passed by Congress at its last session reducing the postage on first-class matter from three to two cents per half ounce or fractional part, no provision was made for local postage, which still remains at two cents on first-class matter. In his forthcoming annual report it is understood that the Postmaster-General will recommend the reduction of this class of postage to one cent per half ounce. Also, if investigation shows it to be practicable without seriously crippling the revenues of the department, he will urge an increase of the weight of first class matter that can be carried for two cents from half an ounce to an ounce. The Postoffice Department has been besieged since October 1 with communications regarding local postage, but has refrained from answering the letters until something definite is agreed upon. It is also worth mention that there is no reduction in foreign postage, but the rate of five cents per half ounce on first class matter is still in force.

Family Plate Recovered.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 7.—The summer residence of J. C. Rivers, of Boston, on Red Cross avenue, was broken into by burglars and a valuable collection of silver plate was stolen. Just as the police were beginning an investigation of the robbery a telephone message was received from Detective Parker, of Providence, saying that he had arrested a party with a quantity of silver bearing the monograms "G. W. S." and "G. W. R.," which had apparently been stolen from Newport. The fellow said his name might be John Jacob Astor, but finally he said his right name was Richard Clayton. The silverware found in his possession is valued at about $2,000. John McCloskey has been arrested here as an accomplice.

An Infant as a Plaintiff.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Gertrude Frances Wilhelmina Kollar, a child born on June 26 last, has begun a suit to set aside the will of her father, who died before she was born. She alleges by her next friend that certain of her cousins, aunts and uncles caused a fraudulent will to be probated and then seized the property, leaving her mother in extreme poverty. Then, to make sure of the success of their scheme, they taking advantage of the necessities of her mother and her delicate condition, Gertrude being not yet born, induced her to admit in court that she had never been lawfully married to the father of Gertrude, in order that she could have a small sum of money with which to meet immediate expenses. The estate is estimated to be of the value of about $15,000.

Struck by Lightning.

ARCHER, Kan., Oct. 7.—Harvey D. Fisher, living upon Capt. Fisher's farm, eighteen miles from here, was struck by lightning during a recent storm while arranging a water spout. He has remained semi-unconscious since that time; his chances for recovery are exceedingly doubtful. His body is burned in spots, and his right foot is black and seared. The same bolt set fire to the house, and despite the rain it was a total loss; about $2,500.

Robbed the Dead.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Frank Bothford, twenty years of age, at Albion, pleaded guilty to petit larceny in stealing a watch and chain valued at $75, from the body of Prof. Stone, of Battle Creek, one of the victims of the railroad disaster at Carlton, July 27. He was sentenced to the Monroe County Penitentiary for six months. He said he also stole the watch and chain of ex-Mayor Hayne, of Chicago, another victim, but upon being found out surrendered it.

An Insane Wife's Suit.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 7.—A case of more than usual importance is now in progress in the district court, in session here. The plaintiff, Anna J. Birdsall, is an insane woman, now confined in the State Insane Asylum at Oswatimie, Kan. She brings action through a conservator on charges of brutality and adultery. The defendant, Caleb Birdsall, is a wealthy farmer of this county. The plaintiff asks for alimony in the sum of $10,000.
